Task Force Information: The Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Task Force shall consist of 11 members that include City residents and nonresidents, homeowners and renters, business owners, Black, Indigenous, or other racially diverse business owners located within or outside the City, employees from various industry sectors within the City, community activists and leaders, and youth and those who work with youth. The Task Force membership shall represent diverse backgrounds and experiences, including race, gender, age, nationality, religion, economic and other diverse perspectives. All are welcome to apply; representation from historically marginalized and underrepresented groups are especially vital for this community discussion. The Task Force has been authorized through December 2021 and members will be expected to serve for the duration of the Task Force. Task Force requirements: - Attend regularly scheduled meetings in person or virtually - Maintain a respectful and professional decorum at all times - Regularly obtain feedback from the community on EDI issues and report back to the Task Force as necessary
Questionnaire – Please complete the following questions:
